

POLICY 38 – CHEATING

Registrants, who apply to take the examination for reasons other than recertification, will be considered in violation of the CCI Code of Ethics and will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Sanctions could result in removal of certification.

Any individual who removes or attempts to remove examination materials including memorizing exam questions or observed cheating in any manner while taking the examination will be subject to disciplinary procedures in addition, sanctions could result in removal of the credential(s)

Any unauthorized individual who is found in possession of exam materials will be subject to disciplinary procedures in addition to possible legal action.